

Refund policy

- If a reservation is cancelled or postponed two weeks in advance, you get a full refund.
- If a reservation is cancelled or postponed to a different date more than 48 hours but less than two weeks prior to original reservation (fishing or camping), you get a 70% refund (the 30% deposit is not refunded).
- If a reservation is cancelled or moved less than 48 hours before your stay, no refund is possible and the remaining costs are charged automatically.
- Gift certificates are valid only for the season during which they were issued.
